Yield of Precious Metals.

Arizona covers an area 72,000,000 acres of land, says the Nugget, four-tenths of which is mineral bearing. It is larger than New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware combined. Since 1849 there has been extracted from seven States and Territories the sum of $2,100,000,000, for which California is credited with $1,148,307,731, Nevada $469,125,043, Idaho $71,543, 901, Oregon and Washington Territory $48,637,251, Utah $55,848,831, and Arizona $17,930,175.

The Oregon Election

A dispatch from Portland yesterday tells how the election was progressing, as follows: The election is being conducted very quietly; both parties are working very hard. The weather is fine all over the State and a very full vote will be polled. Four out of five of the ballots are scratched.

A female minister plenipotentiary is the newest thing out. There arrived at Washington the other day, Miss Beatrice, the Envoy Extraordinary of Costa Rica, duly accredited to the United States Government by President Thomas Guardia. She is a charming American lady, born at Montgomery, Alabama, and was married in Guatemala. She has resided in Costa Rica some years.

Leading Republicans of Texas have received a circular from Washington instructing them to consolidate all elements in favor of Wash. Jones, for Governor, and to forward lists of all counties which can be carried by the Republicans, and to state the amount of money necessary for the campaign.

The Chronicle asserts that Senator Joe Williams will take the Democratic nomination for Governor if it is tendered him. There is not a stronger Democrat in the State. Nevertheless the outlook now is that Jewett Adams will be the nominee.

It looks as though the railroads west of Chicago have killed the goose that lays the golden egg by asking Postmaster-General Howe too much for the fast train. He is now in doubt about putting it on.

The National Conference of the Dunkard Church is now being held at Arnolds, Indiana, and is one of the largest ever held in Indiana, 2,000 people being on the ground.

The public debt reduction for eleven months is about $140,000,000, and will be for the year over $150,000,000. At this rate the debt will be paid off in ten years.

The Candelaria True Fissure has begun its third year, which we trust will be as good for it as the first two combined.

Reports from Pennsylvania say that the Independent ticket is growing stronger than even its friends anticipated.

Treatment of Permanent Pasture

The young grass resulting from last year's seeding should not be grazed till autumn. Two crops of hay may be taken from the land in the first season when the growth is very luxuriant. The first crop should be cut as early as possible, both on account of securing a superior article of hay and also for the benefit of the future crop. Frequent cutting checks the stronger grasses, and affords the more slender growing kinds a better chance, while all are thus encouraged to tiller out and form a good, close sward. It should never be forgotten that many of the finer grasses, if allowed to seed, are not strictly permanent on all soils, and therefore it is most important always to cut the hay before the seed is formed. Again, if cattle are allowed to graze after the first mowing, or, instead of mowing, they will pick out certain grasses and clovers, leaving others, which in time seed or become coarser than is desirable, and have a very unsightly, patchy appearance. In after grass, where grazing is practiced, a scythe should be applied once or twice during the summer to those patches of grass which the cattle leave.—Cultivator.

Richard King, known all over Texas and the West as "The Cattle King," is a small swarthy Irishman, with a humping gait. His lameness is due to the careless way in which a broken leg was set. His flocks of sheep and goats, his herds of cattle and troops of horses and mules are estimated at 500,000 head in all. His ranch, the Santa Gertrudes, is seventy-five miles in length, and includes nearly the whole of two southern counties of Texas.

There is a steady emigration of Chinese from California to the Eastern States, and although this State needs population our people with pleasure, all out of regard for the "brotherhood" fanatics on the eastern side of the continent.—G. V. Union.

THE TENTH CENSUS.

Many inquiries having been made of the Census Office regarding the condition and state of progress of the Census Reports, the Superintendent deems it desirable to make the following statement, for general information:

I.—Two hundred and eighty-six Bulletins, aggregating 1,011 pages, have been issued from this Office between October 16, 1880, and the present time. Of these, 232 have relation to the statistics of population of counties, cities and towns; the remaining 64 cover the statistics of the manufacture of glass, of salt, of iron and steel, of cotton goods, of silk goods, and of chemical products: of mining of anthracite and bituminous coal of copper and of iron ore; the statistics of the cereal crops, of rice, sugar, cotton, and tobacco, and the statistics of live stock; the statistics of the fisheries of the Pacific coast, of the Great Lakes, and of the States of Maine and Virginia, and of the number and size of farms in all but five of the States, and the statistics of the daily press. Also, 14 Forestry Bulletins, with maps, have been published.

In addition to the foregoing, there have been a considerable number of Bulletins relating to the public indebtedness and the ownership of the national debt, and to the distribution of population according to latitude and longitude, rainfall, and other physical conditions.

II.—Of the final complete reports of the Census Office, there have been issued from the printing office, in small editions, for the use of this office, the following reports:

Statistics of Population, Part 1: 464 pages.

Statistics of Public Indebtedness; 667 pages.

Report on the Oyster Industry; 251 pages.

Report on Cotton Production in Louisiana; 99 pages.

Report on the Seal Island of Alaska; 176 pages.

Statistics of Iron and Steel Production; 180 pages.

Report on Railroads of the New England group; 46 pages.

Report on Statistics of the Manufactures of Silk; 30 pages.

Social Statistics of the cities of New Orleans and Austin; 99 pages.

Report on the Production of the Precious Metals; 94 pages.

Report on the Manufactures of the 20 largest Cities of the United States; 32 pages.

Report on Courts of Criminal Jurisdiction; 38 pages.

Of the above reports the volumes on Population and Public Indebtedness are bound in cloth; the balance in paper. The stereotyped plates of these reports await the action of Congress relative to printing editions for general distribution. The foregoing statement of number of pages is exclusive of maps and full-page illustrations.

The following reports have been stereotyped and will be immediately printed:

Report on Fire-arms and Ammunition; 37 pages.

Report on Steam Pumps and Pumping Engines; 57 pages.

Report on Water-power of the South Atlantic Water-shed; 164 pages.

The following reports are at the printing office, and partly in type:

Report on the Cereal Crops of the United States.

Report on Meat Production in Texas California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Report on Manufactures of Interchangeable Mechanism.

Report on Newspapers and Periodicals.

There are at present in the printing office, ready to be taken up when the type in the foregoing reports shall be released, the following:

Report on the Water-power of the Missouri river and its tributaries.

Report on the Cotton Culture of Florida.

Report on the Flour-milling and Milling Machinery.

Report on the Water-power of a portion of the Northwestern States.

There are in the Census Office ready to be sent to the printer, the following reports:

Report on the Tobacco Culture of the United States.

Report on the Cotton Culture of Georgia.

Report on Steam and water power used in Iron and Steel Manufacturing.

Report on the Whale Fisheries of the United States.

Report on the Quarries of Ohio and Kentucky.

Report on the Social Statistics of Boston.

Report on Chemical Manufacturing Industry of the United States.

Report on the General Fisheries of the United States.

Report on State and Municipal Taxation and Valuation.

Report on the Railroad Statistics of the United States, exclusive of New England.

Report on the Water Supply of Cities and Towns.

As some misstatements in regard to the delay of Census Reports have been published, it may be well to say that none of the matter contained in the Bulletins mentioned above has ever been published heretofore so soon after the close of the enumeration by a full year, and that the three quarto volumes of the Census of 1870 were not issued from the printing office until early in 1873, although they bear the printing office date of 1872.

Of the four quarto volumes of the Census of 1850, two bear the printing office date of 1864, and two the date of 1866.

It will appear, from the foregoing, that the publications of the Tenth Census are already very far in advance of those of preceding censuses.

BLAINE AND ARTHUR.

How the Ex-Secretary Talked to the President.

[Washington Corr. S. F. Post.]

Mr. Blaine is brave to rashness. There is a dinner table story that proves this trait of his character in a way that leaves no doubt. Last March President Arthur invited his Cabinet officers, a few Senators and friends for a social dinner, and the appointments of the feast alone marked it out as an exceptional occasion. The private dining room, with its dull gold walls and hangings of pomegranate plush, was further enhanced with thickets of blooming azaleas, and the table was exquisitely adorned with silver, crystal, dainty china and masses of roses. The guests were all well acquainted, a gay and brilliant party, and the ladies especially attired for the evening. Sociability reigned around the board, the host and Mr. Blaine, who sat nearly vis-à-vis, leading in the wit and merriment. Several times the President addressed his guest as "Mr. Secretary," the title by which a Cabinet officer is usually designated personally, and each time Mr. Blaine's plumage was visibly ruffled, and his black eyes snapped indignant sparks. A third time the President let slip the "Mr. Secretary," when Mr. Blaine, leaning over, said in his own peculiar way: "I will thank you Mr. President, not to address me by the title of an office of which you have deprived me. To you I am simply Mr. Blaine."

A chill cold silence fell upon the group, and all fairly turned pale except the President, who flushed deeply, for he blushed like a school girl at the least thing. The President deprecatingly and pleasantly tried to smooth the affair over, attributed his error to the habit acquired while they were officially connected, and said that he never deprived him of an office, it would have given him much pleasure to have had him retained. "I beg your pardon, sir; you did deprive me of my office, and you know perfectly the circumstances under which I left it," answered up the ex-Premier.

After this little scene, the company set itself to work to become social again, and the host and Mr. Blaine quite outdid themselves in striving to reinstate the cheerful hum and laughter that had prevailed; but the guests, whose nerves had been thrilled, had the uncertain sensation of being in the midst of innumerable dynamite bombs, and hardly attained their previous gaiety that evening. It was generally agreed that such a little byplay had never before diversified a President's dinner party, and that no one but Mr. Blaine would ever have dared reprimand such a personage in his own house.

Colorado Sand Blasts.

There is on exhibition at the general office of the Western Union Telegraph Office in this city, a section of a telegraph pole that for five years past has carried the wires of the Company in the Colorado Desert, and which shows the force and effect of the sand blasts in that locality. The surface of the once straight and perfect pole is now grooved and corrugated by the continual blowing of the sands against it, which have had much the same effect upon it outwardly as has the teredo upon the hearts of the piles driven down along our water front, having completely perforated it in places. The section of the pole will be forwarded to the general office in New York City, in order that the management there may realize the difficulties that their officers here have to contend with.—[S. F. Call.]

Grand Encampment. I. O. O. F.

The Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Nevada, convened at Carson yesterday.

The Endowment Rank was adopted almost unanimously, and is to be put into operation immediately.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: P. Mulcahy, Grand Chief Patriarch; A. E. Shannon, Grand High Priest; D. G. Kitzmeyer, Grand Senior Warden; F. C. Updike, Grand Junior Warden; Wm. H. Hill, Grand Scribe; Geo. Tufy, Grand Treasurer; W. H. Hancock, Grand Representative; D. O. Adkison, Alex. LePort and J. G. Farrington, Trustees.

After the election the Encampment proceeded to installation, all of which was done in regular order. The retiring Chief Patriarch delivered an appropriate valedictory. On assuming the chair Grand Chief Patriarch Mulcahy highly eulogized the new Endowment feature and promised to have it working in sixty days. Remarks were made by D. O. Adkison and other old timers in the work.

The Encampment adjourned until after the session of the Grand Lodge, when the place of meeting for next year will be selected.

The Bonanza.

Only a small force is now employed at the California and Consolidated Virginia mines. No ore is being taken out, and the mammoth mills of these companies are idle. Drifting is in progress in both mines. For the weeks ending May 26th, three drifts in the California were extended 6, 17 and 26 feet respectively, and two drifts in the Consolidated Virginia were extended 10 and 28 feet respectively.

U. S. Stage Company to Withdraw.

The United States Stage Company, will withdraw from business in this State as soon as practicable after the first of July next, when all of their Nevada mail contracts expire. The business will then be divided between small stage drivers, excepting a few of the larger routes, which are to be controlled by Gilmore & Salisbury, the Utah stage men.

N. & O.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad will be held to-morrow. It is not expected that there will be any shooting upon this occasion.

Another Michmond.

Mr. Geo. T. Marye, Sr., of Virginia, is a pronounced candidate for Governor of Nevada. He will submit his name to the Democratic State Convention.

Mail Routes Cut off.

Special mail service has been discontinued on the following Nevada routes: Arnett to Chelbourne, Fish Lake to Oasis, Ruby Hill to Eureka.

Organized Convicts.

The Carson Appeal has been informed that a number of the convicts in our State Prison have formed an organization which binds them to assassinate any criminal brought to the State Prison who has turned State's evidence. The officers are in a quandary as to what to do with Jesse Pierce, the Aurora stage robber. He "peached" on his "pals" and in consideration thereof received the light sentence of six years. Should he be placed in the shop shop or quarry he is likely to be killed at any moment for his perfidy, as there are men in the prison who are ripe for any act, however desperate. One feature in connection with this matter is susceptible to some explanation, and that is, how is it possible if the proper discipline is maintained at the prison, that a gang of desperate criminals can effect a secret organization? If they can do this, and they have done it, according to the statement of a prison official, why can they not effect an organization for a big break? Of course we do not intend to dictate Warden Garrard's duties, but would suggest that a restriction of the liberties now allowed the prisoners in his charge might possibly obviate much unpleasantness in the future.

We clip the annexed about Bobby McGinley from the Adin (Modoc Co.) Argus, of June 1st:

Bobby McGinley will be here with his troupe on the 6th instant. Bobby never fails to draw a good house in Adin, because he never fails to give a good performance. He always gives a better entertainment than he agrees to, and we have no hesitancy in saying that he has the best concert troupe that travels in Northern California.

Mr. Chas. H. Litchman, of Marblehead, Mass., editor and proprietor of the Essex Statesman, a family Greenback paper ($1 a year in advance), came down from the Canstock last evening and continued on to California to fill his engagements with the Red Men of which order he is Chief.

Mother! Mother!! Mother!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the little sufferer at once—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. Jan10-ly-SuWfkw
